

Contents

Unit	Vocabulary and Grammar	Skills, Functions and Study Techniques	Culture
Let's start page 5	Vocabulary: Countries and nationalities; School subjects and objects; Classroom expressions; The family	Pronunciation: New words Speaking: Greetings and introductions; Describing your family
Unit 1 Welcome to my world pages 8–19
Lesson 1	Vocabulary: Adjectives of physical description (revision)	Speaking: Describing a colleague Writing: Describing a member of a family
Lesson 2	Grammar: Present simple – to be, have got	Reading: E-pals Speaking: Asking and answering wh- questions about people	Living in Britain: Scotland
Lesson 3	Vocabulary: Everyday activities Grammar: Present simple – affirmative, negative and questions	Pronunciation: New words Listening: A radio interview Speaking: Asking and answering questions about everyday activities Study technique: Establishing good studying techniques	An interview about a sumo wrestler
Everyday English	Vocabulary: Expressing likes and dislikes	Listening: A dialogue about likes and dislikes Pronunciation: Sentence stress
Writing		Reading: A text about Pakistan Writing: Guided writing about Poland The use of capital letters	Pakistan
Language Guide Progress Check	Revision of vocabulary and grammar from Unit 1 Self-assessment
Time Out		Reading: Celebrities from different countries
Unit 2 Home entertainment pages 20–31
Lesson 1	Vocabulary: Television programmes	Pronunciation: Word stress Writing: Writing an extract of a television programme
Lesson 2	Grammar: Adverbs and expressions of frequency	Reading: Teenagers' favourite TV programmes Speaking: Asking and answering questions about activities	Living in Britain: Favourite TV programmes
Lesson 3	Vocabulary: Everyday activities Grammar: Present continuous – affirmative, negative and questions	Pronunciation: New words Listening: A phone conversation Speaking: Asking and answering questions about current activities
Everyday English	Grammar: Present simple vs present continuous	Listening/Reading: A phone conversation
Writing		Reading: Claire's free time Writing: The use of apostrophes Study technique: Writing good presentation; The use of apostrophes
Language Guide Progress Check	Revision of vocabulary and grammar from Unit 2 Self-assessment
Time Out	Vocabulary: Days of the week (revision)	Listening/Reading: A pop song – Friday I'm In Love
Unit 3 Consumer guide pages 32–43
Lesson 1	Vocabulary: Supermarket products	Pronunciation: New words Speaking: Asking and answering questions about eating habits; Talking about what you buy in supermarkets
Lesson 2	Vocabulary: Prepositions of place (revision) Grammar: There is, there are (revision); some, any and a/an	Reading: A text about supermarkets Study technique: Using a dictionary	Living in Britain: Tesco and Sainsbury's supermarkets
Lesson 3	Vocabulary: Materials and containers Grammar: A lot (of), much and many	Pronunciation: New words; Intonation in yes/no questions Listening: A text about an American collector Speaking: Asking and answering questions about routine activities
Everyday English	Vocabulary: Expressions to give directions; Names of shops (revision) Grammar: Imperative	Listening/Reading: Giving and following directions
Writing		Writing: Writing a message The use of commas, full stops and question marks
Language Guide Progress Check	Revision of vocabulary and grammar from Unit 3 Self-assessment
Time Out		Reading: A quiz about food
CONSOLIDATION A Units 1–3 pages 44–46			Project 1 (Hobbies) page 47
			English in the world: A world of hobbies

Unit	Vocabulary and Grammar	Skills, Functions and Study Techniques	Culture
Unit 4 Police officer pages 48–59
Lesson 1	Vocabulary: Jobs and professions	Pronunciation: New words Reading: Descriptions of jobs Speaking: Asking and answering yes/no questions about jobs	Living in Britain: Judges, police officers and Scotland Yard
Lesson 2	Grammar: Past simple – affirmative, was and were (revision)	Reading: A disastrous bank robber Pronunciation: -ed ending Study technique: Predicting information in texts
Lesson 3	Vocabulary: Places of work Grammar: Past simple – negative, questions and short answers (revision)	Pronunciation: New words Listening: An interview with a reality show celebrity Speaking: Asking and answering questions about last weekend
Everyday English	Grammar: Must and mustn't (revision)	Reading: A quiz about law in Britain Speaking: Laws in Poland
Writing	Vocabulary: Time expressions	Reading: Rearranging sentences in a story Writing: A story
Language Guide Progress Check	Revision of vocabulary and grammar from Unit 4 Self-assessment
Time Out	Vocabulary: Opposites	Reading/Listening: A pop song – Money, Money, Money
Unit 5 Scary stories pages 60–71
Lesson 1	Vocabulary: Phobias; Adjectives to describe feelings	Pronunciation: New words Reading: Descriptions of situations with impact on feelings Speaking: Describing feelings caused by certain situations
Lesson 2	Grammar: Past continuous – affirmative, negative, wh- and yes/no questions and short answers	Reading: A text about Ghost Detective Pronunciation: strong and weak forms of was Speaking: Asking and answering questions about a picture Study technique: Guessing new words
Lesson 3	Vocabulary: Adverbs Grammar: Past continuous vs past simple	Pronunciation: New words Listening: A ghost story	Living in Britain: Famous horror stories
Everyday English		Listening: Describing an event in the past Speaking: Describing an event in the past
Writing		Writing: Story – the start, the middle, the end
Language Guide Progress Check	Revision of vocabulary and grammar from Unit 5 Self-assessment
Time Out		Reading: A comic story
Unit 6 Adventurous people pages 72–83
Lesson 1	Vocabulary: Adjectives describing people, places and experiences	Reading: A quiz about famous adventurers Pronunciation: New words
Lesson 2	Grammar: The comparative form – short and long adjectives	Reading: Young adventurer Pronunciation: The – er ending Writing: Comparing dogs and spiders	Living in Britain: British ports
Lesson 3	Vocabulary: Verbs of movement Grammar: The superlative form – short and long adjectives	Pronunciation: New words Speaking: Asking and answering questions about sports activities Reading: A quiz about Mount Everest Listening: A radio interview
Everyday English	Vocabulary: Expressing preferences	Listening: A dialogue about films Speaking: Describing preferences
Writing	Vocabulary: Expressions of opinion	Reading: An adventure film Study technique: Correcting your written work	Popular culture heroes
Language Guide Progress Check	Revision of vocabulary and grammar from Unit 6 Self-assessment
Time Out		Reading: A questionnaire – How adventurous are you?
CONSOLIDATION B Units 4–6 pages 84–86			Project 2 (Books) page 87
			English in the world: A world of fantasy

Unit	Vocabulary and Grammar	Skills, Functions and Study Techniques	Culture
Unit 7 New destinations pages 88–99
Lesson 1	Vocabulary: Types of transport Grammar: The comparative and superlative forms of adjectives (revision)	Reading: A quiz about transport facts Speaking: Asking and answering questions about transport; Talking about advantages and disadvantages of different means of transport Pronunciation: New words
Lesson 2	Grammar: Be going to – affirmative, negative and questions (revision)	Reading: Mars attacks! Pronunciation: Sentence stress Speaking: Asking and answering questions about future plans	Living in Britain: Exploring Mars; Darwin and the theory of evolution
Lesson 3	Vocabulary: Verbs connected with transport Grammar: Present continuous for future arrangements	Pronunciation: New words Listening: An interview with an astronaut Writing: Plans of a celebrity Speaking: Asking and answering questions about celebrities' plans
Everyday English		Listening: A dialogue about going out Speaking: Suggesting going out in a dialogue Study technique: Communication strategies
Writing	Vocabulary: Linking word: so	Reading: Joining situations and consequences
Language Guide Progress Check	Revision of vocabulary and grammar from Unit 7 Self-assessment
Time Out		Listening/Reading: A pop song – Somewhere Only We Know
Unit 8 Computer kids pages 100–111
Lesson 1	Vocabulary: Computers	Pronunciation: New words Speaking: Talking about important inventions	Living in Britain: Children, computers and statistics
Lesson 2	Grammar: Will – affirmative, negative, questions and short answer	Reading: A text about computers Pronunciation: Will – contracted form Speaking: Asking and answering questions about the future
Lesson 3	Vocabulary: Opposite adjectives Grammar: First conditional	Pronunciation: New words Listening: An interview with a professor about the future Speaking: Asking and answering questions with first conditional Study technique: How to pass exams
Everyday English		Listening/Reading: A dialogue with offers Speaking: Talking about problems and offering help
Writing	Vocabulary: Global issues	Writing: Using paragraphs in a text (guided)
Language Guide Progress Check	Revision of vocabulary and grammar from Unit 8 Self-assessment
Time Out		Writing: Computer games
Unit 9 Stay healthy pages 112–123
Lesson 1	Vocabulary: Health problems	Reading: A quiz about eating habits Pronunciation: New words Speaking: Talking about illnesses
Lesson 2	Grammar: Can and could	Reading: Bad medicine Speaking: Asking and answering questions with could
Lesson 3	Vocabulary: Health products Grammar: Should and shouldn't	Pronunciation: New words; Silent // Listening: A dialogue Speaking: Role playing a dialogue Study technique: Holiday English	Living in Britain: Shopping in Boots
Everyday English		Listening: Asking for permission with can Speaking: Role playing dialogues
Writing	Vocabulary: Linkers: and, but and because	Reading: A text about school friends Writing: Giving advice
Language Guide Progress Check	Revision of vocabulary and grammar from Unit 9 Self-assessment
Time Out		Listening/Reading: A pop song – Don't Worry Be Happy
CONSOLIDATION C Units 7–9 pages 124–126			Project 3 (Computers) page 127
			English in the world: Computer world