Warm-up

Show the class an apple or another round fruit. Tell them to think of it as the Earth. Explain that the outside of the Earth, the skin, is cool. Cut the fruit in half. Explain The Earth we live on has a skin like the apple. Under the skin the Earth is hot. Point to the centre. Explain The centre of the Earth is very, very, hot. This heat keeps the Earth under its skin hot all the time. Tell the class they are going to find out more about the heat inside the Earth.

Poster 1

Heat in the Earth

In Unit 1 you are going to read a diary. The diary is written by Andy Scott.

Andy is on holiday with his father. They are visiting a small country.

There are many interesting things to see.

volcano hot spring

geyser mud pot glacier

These people know about Iceland.

guide geologist

A diary is written in the first person. The writer uses I and we.
Andy uses I when he writes about himself.

I am really looking forward to this holiday. I'm going to write everything down in this diary.

He uses we when he writes about what he did with his dad.

When we were flying over the island we could see the volcanoes and the glaciers.

Each day, Andy writes about what happened. He starts with the day of the week and the date.

Sunday 19th June
He writes about the days in order. The next day he writes about is ...

Monday 20th June
In his diary, Andy tells us:

- what he did
- what he saw
- what he thought about it
- what he felt about it.

The information in a diary is personal. It gives us the writer's point of view.

A diary does not usually contain direct speech.

Text type and vocabulary

- 1 Read the title. Give the class time to look at the pictures. Read the first two sentences and point out Andy on the other side of the poster.
- 2 Read the next two sentences and point out Iceland. If you have a world map or a globe, show the class where Iceland is. Tell the class that underneath Iceland the Earth's skin is very thin and sometimes the hot rocks under the Earth's skin come up to the surface.
- 3 Read the final sentence and the labels of the pictures. Tell the class they will find out more about these things and the people.

Text type features

- 4 Read the first three sentences and point out Andy again. Read, or ask a volunteer to read, the two sentences written by Andy.
- 5 Continue to read the information, inviting volunteers to read what Andy wrote.
- 6 After the date, read the list. Point out the picture of Andy writing. Point out that he is thinking of himself and what he saw during his holiday.
Make sure the class understands the meanings of personal: to do with one person and point of view: the way a person (or people) sees and thinks about things.
- 7 Read the last sentence.

Reading (PB pp 22–23)

- 1 Give the class time to look at the diary and the pictures. Ask them if they can name any of the things they see illustrated. Check they understand the labels on the diagrams.
Ask them to look at the pages. Ask How many days has Andy written about? five: Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday
- 2 Play track 9. The children listen and follow in their books.
- 3 Read the diary to the class in short sections. Pause at the end of each section to check meanings as necessary. The children should check or find meanings of words in their Dictionaries as you go through the sections.
- 4 Ask questions about each part of the diary (see next page or use questions of your own). Note: short answers are given below as the aim of the activity is to check understanding or help the children to gain understanding if they currently do not. The children may choose to answer with a complete sentence but a one- or two-word answer or a phrase can also show correct understanding.
- 5 Ask different children to read a few lines each of the diary, or a paragraph, or the entry for one day.
- 6 Play track 9 a final time.
- 7 Remind the class to learn some of the new words. Suggested lists are at the back of the WBs. If you prefer to download the lists and give each child one list at a time, they are available from the English World website.

1 Heat in the Earth

Reading 1 The land of fire and ice

Sunday 19th June

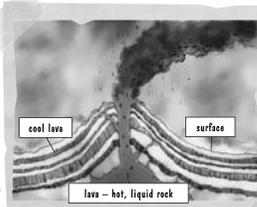

Dad and I have just arrived in Iceland – the land of fire and ice! I am really looking forward to this holiday. I'm going to write everything down in this diary.

When we were flying over the island we could see the volcanoes and the glaciers. None of the volcanoes was erupting. I would like to see an eruption – it would be thrilling – but active volcanoes are dangerous. It's safer when they're quiet. Tomorrow we're going to Hekla. It's an active volcano but it hasn't erupted for several years.

Monday 20th June

Today we climbed to the top of Hekla. We didn't go into the crater, though. There was snow on the ground but in some places the rocks were warm. The snow was melting and the rocks were steaming. Our guide picked up a small rock and told us about it. When the volcano erupts, the rock from deep under the ground comes out of the volcano. The rock is so hot that it is liquid. It runs down the sides of the volcano, then it cools and goes hard. It's called lava. It isn't smooth at all. It feels very rough and a bit sharp. You can easily cut yourself on it.

Our guide's name is Ari. In the hotel this evening he drew a diagram of what Hekla looks like inside. Now I understand why the ground was hot. There is liquid rock down there – now!

Ari showed us pictures of Hekla erupting. He let me keep this one. He is very nice. He's a student at the moment but he's going to be a geologist. He knows a lot about rocks and everything about the volcanoes in Iceland.

Tuesday 21st June

Today we saw a geyser – that's a kind of hot spring. About every ten minutes hot water went shooting up from the ground like a huge fountain. It was fantastic. The water underground is heated by the hot rocks. First it bubbles then when it gets really hot it suddenly goes up about 10 metres high. Whoosh! What incredible power!

Wednesday 22nd June

We went to a really strange place today. We went to the top of a volcano, then we went down inside. The ground was steaming and there were lots of hot springs. Sometimes these springs are boiling hot so you must be careful. There were noisy pools of hot bubbling mud, too! They're called mud pots. What weird sounds! A long time ago people believed in dragons and monsters. They thought they lived in volcanoes and now I know why. The noises sounded like terrifying monsters under our feet. What a peculiar place!

Monsters under the ground

Thursday 24th June

Today was terrific fun. We went to a gigantic pool outside. I thought the water would be freezing cold but it was like being in a warm bath! It was brilliant. A hot spring feeds the pool. It's like having a hot tap running all the time so the pool never goes cold. I wanted to stay all day. Tomorrow Ari's taking us to a glacier. This is the best holiday ever!

Me and dad in the warm pool

Lesson 6 Class composition; Writing preparation, Composition practice

Lesson aim Writing

Lesson targets Children:

- compose two diary entries with teacher support (session 1)
- practise vocabulary and choose ideas for independent writing (session 2)
- write two diary entries independently (session 2)

Session 1 Warm-up

Play Verb tenses. (See Games, p 216.) Write up some irregular verbs on the board, such as think, write, draw, see, fly, stand, hear, feel. The children tell you the past tenses.

Activity 2

- 1 Discuss each of the questions with the class and make notes on one side of the board.
For the last three questions, encourage the class to look carefully at the first picture and to think about the sights and sounds. Encourage them to think of adjectives to describe them. Note the words.
Encourage them to think what Andy felt when he put his hand in the water. What did he think while he was at the lake? Note their ideas.
- 2 Add extra questions as you wish. For example: What time did they start their ride up to the lake? How long did it take? Was it fun? difficult? uncomfortable?
- 3 Do the same with the second picture. Tell them to imagine being Andy and standing right next to the waterfall. Ask What do you think Andy saw and heard? How did he feel, standing close to it? What did he think?

Activity 3

- 1 Help the class to make the notes on the board into complete sentences and create a diary entry for each day. Remind them that they must write as if they were Andy and use the first person.
The length and quality of the entries will depend on the extent and level of detail in the notes.
Prompt sentences from the class and write them on the board to make a paragraph for each day. Encourage the class to create a piece of writing that is equal to their ability. This will vary between different classes.
- 2 When the entries are complete, ask two volunteers to read them to the class.
Ask if there are any changes that should be made to improve the writing. Should there be more adjectives? Are there enough adverbs or better verbs to use?
Make any changes that you and the class agree to. Let one or more volunteers read the entries to the class.
- 3 The finished piece of writing will vary between different classes. The example shown on page 53 is above the average level that should be expected.
Point out to the class that the entries
 - are written in the first person
 - tell events in the sequence they happened
 - tell some of the writer's thoughts and feelings.

Class composition

1 Andy and his father went to places in Iceland. Look at the pictures. Talk about them.

Friday

Saturday

2 Think about these questions.
How did they travel?
What did they see? What did it look like? How did it feel? How did it sound?

3 Write Andy's diary for Friday and Saturday.

28 Unit 1 Class composition: diary entries

Class composition (PB p 28)

Activity 1

Read the task to the class. Tell them to look at Andy's picture of what they did on Friday. Ask questions about it: What / Who is in the picture? What are they doing? etc.
Ask about the place they went to on Saturday. What is it? Is it high up in the mountains? Is it easy to get to?

Session 2 Warm-up

Play Look, cover, write, check with singular and plural nouns from Lesson 5. (See Games, p 216.)

Workbook: Writing preparation (WB p 8)

Explain to the class that the exercises on this page will help them with vocabulary and ideas for their writing on WB page 9. Tell them that the aim is not to put down answers as quickly as possible. Explain that they must think about each question and complete the tasks carefully. If they do that, they will find the writing easier.

Exercise 1

The children write the words and answer the first question. Remind them to think about each place and decide which they think would be the most interesting and exciting to see or visit.

They should choose the means of travel that best matches the places they have chosen.

Exercise 2

Tell the children to look carefully at the pictures. They choose one or other of the boat trips then give the reason why Andy and his dad chose it.

Go around looking at the children's work as they complete the page. Check that they have reasons for their answers and choices as necessary. If you wish, give them a time limit to complete the page. Those who finish early should go on to exercise 1 on page 9.

Workbook: Composition practice (WB p 9)

Exercise 1

The children read the words and check meanings as necessary.

Tell them to read the words and circle those that they think fit best with the activities they chose on page 8.

Exercise 2

The children write the two entries. Point out the prompt questions. Tell the children to use these to help them with ideas for things to write about. They do not need to write an exact answer to every question.

Remind them that they are continuing Andy's diary and they are writing from Andy's point of view. Point out Mr Flash's reminder.

When they have finished, tell them to re-read their work to look for mistakes they can correct or improvements they could make.

Ask volunteers to read parts of their diaries to the class. They may complete and/or check the task for homework.

The children may make neat copies for their portfolios and illustrate their work.

Writing preparation

1 Read.

On Sunday Andy and his dad visited some different places. Write the words.

Personal response questions

Do you like wildlife programmes?

Have you ever seen a rare animal? What was it?
