2 Read and listen. Find two advantages of the metro system.

Travel round Hong Kong

The Hong Kong Metro (MTR) is very popular. It is one of the cleanest and most comfortable metro systems in the world. However, there are some strict rules to make sure that it stays this way:

- You must have a valid ticket to travel.
- You mustn't eat or drink on trains. Fines are up to HKD$5,000!
- You must stand behind the yellow line on the platform.
- You mustn't take bikes on trains.
- You mustn't shout. A guard may ask you to leave the train if you do!
- You mustn't play musical instruments, dance or sing on trains.

3 Read and complete.

We use must and mustn't + the infinitive to talk about rules or obligations.

We often use must / mustn't with you. In this situation, you means people in general.

Affirmative

You must have a valid ticket.

You must _____ behind the line.

Negative

You mustn't eat on the train.

You mustn't _____ bikes on trains.

Do not use to after must and mustn't.

mustn't = must + not

4 Read and circle the correct word. Listen and check.

More MTR regulations

- You must / mustn't carry large objects on trains.
- You must / mustn't have a ticket for children over 1.2 metres tall.
- You must / mustn't paint on the walls of trains.
- You must / mustn't smoke.
- You must / mustn't respect other passengers.
- You must / mustn't drop rubbish.
- You must / mustn't follow all signs and instructions.
- You must / mustn't put your feet on the seats.

1  Listen and tick (✓) or cross (X).

2  Complete with must or mustn't. Listen and check.

In a minute, we're going to get on the cable car. I don't want any problems, so you (a) must follow these rules. You can stand if you want to, but you (b) _____ stand on the seats. You (c) _____ respect the other passengers, so you (d) _____ play music or shout. You (e) _____ block the doors with your bags. If the car is full, you (f) _____ offer your seat to an older person. And you (g) _____ eat or drink on the cable car. You (h) _____ wait until we get off.

3  Write rules with the prompts. Listen and check.

1  Read and listen. What are the best parts of a pilot's job?

I have to travel a lot. Sometimes I have to travel thousands of miles and work in different time zones on the same day. A pilot must concentrate at all times. I'm responsible for a lot of people so I mustn't get distracted. I don't have to reserve a seat when I travel on another plane because there is always an extra seat for a pilot. And I don't have to wait for my bags, so I can leave the airport really quickly!

We use have to or must + the infinitive to talk about obligations:
I have to travel a lot. A pilot must concentrate.

We use mustn't to talk about an obligation, BUT we use don't have to when something is not necessary and we have a choice:

I mustn't get distracted. (This is a rule.)

I don't have to reserve a seat. (It is not necessary.)

2 Read and circle the correct word.

I'm a flight attendant. I (a) have to / mustn't take care of people on the plane. Before take-off, I (b) have to / mustn't explain the safety instructions carefully. Some people think they (c) mustn't / don't have to listen, but the instructions are very important. If a passenger becomes really ill, the plane (d) must / doesn't have to land at the nearest airport. We (e) mustn't / don't have to panic. One great thing about my job is that I (f) mustn't / don't have to work every day. Sometimes I (g) mustn't / don't have to fly back immediately and I can visit a new city.

3 Read and complete with the words in the box.

have to / must    mustn't    don't have to Australia is an enormous country and some people live hundreds of miles from a city. If they get ill, they (a) have to / must see a doctor, but this can be difficult. If people can't travel to a city, the Flying Doctors (b) _____ fly to them. The doctors (c) _____ fly the plane because a pilot always goes with them. You (d) _____ pay for the service because it's free. There are about 60 planes to take doctors all over Australia, so people who are ill (e) _____ wait long for help.

Many remote areas also have a medical chest. Before you use it, you (f) _____ speak to a flying doctor by phone. And you (g) _____ use the medicine for animals, it is only for people.

4 Complete the email about your morning routine. Use the words in activity 3 and the ideas in the box.

arrive late    buy a ticket    carry my books    forget my backpack wear a helmet    walk alone    wear a seatbelt

Hi, _____,
Thanks for asking me about my morning. I _____ get up early. I _____ travel far to school. I go to school by _____ so I have to _____. I don't have to _____. My school is strict, so I _____. And I _____.

Review 1

1 Read the poster. Why is some information crossed out?

THE SANDBACH TRANSPORT FESTIVAL

The Sandbach transport festival started 20 years ago – that's a long time! It takes place in the city centre. It's on Saturday 21st and Sunday 22nd April. ~~You don't have to come on both days.~~

You mustn't bring cars to the city centre. You have to walk or go by bus. The festival and buses are free. ~~You will have more money for ice cream!~~

Watch the incredible motorbike stunt show, ~~but you mustn't try this at home!~~

2 Read and cross out unnecessary information.

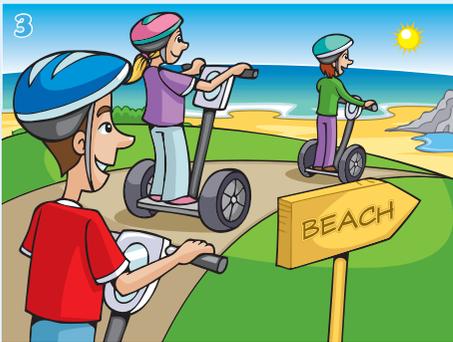

The school trip is on Friday 21st June. Last year it was in July, but it changed. The bus leaves school at 8.00 am and returns at 7.00 pm. All students must arrive by 7.45 am. This is very early. You must bring lunch and snacks. Some people like to eat a lot, so you must bring enough food for the day. You don't have to bring drinks. The school will provide juice and water. Everyone said the trip was great last year!

3 Write about your next school trip. Only include necessary information. Write about...

- where
- what to bring
- transport
- when
- lunch
