

TASK 1 Read Sara's holiday blog and answer the questions.

1. When did she arrive in Palma?
2. Where is Sara staying? Does she like the place?
3. What did she see during the sightseeing tour?
4. What does she think about buses in Palma?
5. What adventure did she have on 20th of July?

15th July

Palma de Mallorca is great! I've been here for 8 days now and I still haven't had enough. Luckily, we aren't leaving until next week, so I hope to see as much as possible.

The accommodation may not be the best I've ever had, but it's not bad. We are staying at a bungalow near the beach, only five minutes away from the city centre. We are the only guests here, so the owner makes us breakfast whenever we want. As it was so cheap, we can't really complain.

The centre gets busy every day. There are many tiny streets with shops and restaurants, which are full of customers in the afternoon. Most of the restaurants are never closed and the place is lively even at night. Honestly, the nightlife here is fantastic! I tell you, if you're looking for a quiet place, Palma is not for you.

17th July

For the last two days we have been sightseeing. There are lots of interesting places here, including the cathedral, the palace and the parliament. We were impressed by the design and colours of the buildings. Actually, everything about this place is great. Even the public transport is really good. Well, at least better than in my hometown! Originally, we wanted to hire a car, but it's a good thing we didn't – buses can take us everywhere and are quite cheap.

20th July

Well, we decided to see the suburbs today, but it was a mistake. Nothing is as nice outside the city centre. The bus was late, with no air conditioning, and the driver, who was old and really arrogant, didn't tell us which bus stop was ours so we got off at the wrong place. A nightmare!

Have you ever wondered what the most expensive house in the world looks like? (1) _____ Rather, it's a strange-looking building in a city centre in India.

Named after the mythical Atlantic island of Antilla, the building belongs to a businessman Mukesh Ambani, who is the fifth richest man in the world. Experts believe that Antilla is worth up to 2 billion US dollars! (2) _____ Well, let's see why the property is so expensive.

To start with, it is the value of the land itself. Antilla is situated in a place where land prices start at 10,000 dollars per square metre. (3) _____ Extravagant bedrooms, cinemas, fancy ballrooms and floating gardens are definitely worth the price. No wonder the owner of the residence employs a full-time staff of six hundred people to keep it in order.

When Antilla was built, newspapers claimed that the Ambani family didn't want to move in because the residence design didn't respect the ancient Indian architectural principles of vastu shastra. (4) _____ The Ambanis have lived there for a few years now and haven't experienced any bad luck.

- A. Secondly, this price of the property is extremely high.
- B. What makes the price for a 27-floor house so high?
- C. Of course, it is no secret that how surprising it is.
- D. However, it wasn't true and the media exaggerated.
- E. Well, it looks nothing like a mansion in a posh neighbourhood.
- F. Moreover, the interior design is absolutely breathtaking.
