

1. Tina i Jack sprawdzają, czy mają wszystko, żeby przygotować duży, smaczny obiad. Popatrz na obrazek i uzupełnij dialogi. Jakie produkty będzie trzeba dokupić?

- Tina: Is there any bread?
 Jack: Yes, there is some bread.
 Tina: OK. Are there any tomatoes?
 Jack: , are.
 Tina: How are there?
 Jack: Six or seven, maybe...
 Tina: That's good. Is there a cabbage?
 Jack: ,
 cabbage.
 Tina: And is any cheese?
 Jack: , there is.
 Tina: there any eggs?
 Jack: eggs.
 Tina: How are ?
 Jack: Erm... six, I think.
 Tina: That's enough. OK. Is there chicken?
 Jack: chicken.
 Tina: Oh... And is there onion?
 Jack: onion.
 Tina: OK, are any mushrooms?
 Jack: mushrooms.
 Tina: Well, we need to go to the shop. We need to buy some and some

2. Dokończ odpowiedzi na pytania, używając jednego z wyrazów po prawej. Jeden wyraz jest zbędny – nie będzie trzeba go użyć.

1. A: Shh! Be quiet! Someone can hear you!
 B: Calm down! No one !
 2. A: Pat and Sam don't want to go with you and me.
 B: Really? They don't want to !?
 3. A: Have you got my books?
 B: No,
 4. A: I like Marta, she's nice.
 B: I , too.

1. Tina i Jack sprawdzają, czy mają wszystko, żeby przygotować duży, smaczny obiad. Popatrz na obrazek i uzupełnij dialogi. Jakie produkty będzie trzeba dokupić?

- Tina: Is there any bread?
 Jack: Yes, there is some bread.
 Tina: OK. Are there any tomatoes?
 Jack: Yes, there are.
 Tina: How many are there?
 Jack: Six or seven, maybe...
 Tina: That's good. Is there a cabbage?
 Jack: Yes, there is a cabbage.
 Tina: And is there any cheese?
 Jack: Yes, there is.
 Tina: Are there any eggs?
 Jack: Yes, there are some eggs.
 Tina: How many are there ?
 Jack: Erm... six, I think.
 Tina: That's enough. OK. Is there any chicken?
 Jack: No, there isn't any chicken.
 Tina: Oh... And is there an onion?
 Jack: Yes, there is an onion.
 Tina: OK, are there any mushrooms?
 Jack: No, there aren't any mushrooms.
 Tina: Well, we need to go to the shop. We need to buy some chicken and some mushrooms .

2. Dokończ odpowiedzi na pytania, używając jednego z wyrazów po prawej. Jeden wyraz jest zbędny – nie będzie trzeba go użyć.

- A: Shh! Be quiet! Someone can hear you!
 B: Calm down! No one can hear me !
- A: Pat and Sam don't want to go with you and me.
 B: Really? They don't want to go with us !?
- A: Have you got my books?
 B: No, I haven't got them .
- A: I like Marta, she's nice.
 B: I like her , too.

