

2 Working together

The relationship game

START	When did you last quarrel someone? What was it about?	What does a strict mean in your country? Were you brought up in this way?	CHALLENGE	Can you think of a fictional (or famous) couple who have a relationship? What do you think makes it so difficult for them?	Where do you think is the best place to up: in the city or in the countryside? Why?
	Do you work/study with someone that you don't eye to eye with? Give an example of a difference you have.	Have you ever shoulders with the rich and famous? If yes, describe it. If no, would you like to?	What advice would you give to two people who have fallen ? What could you do to help them?	CHALLENGE	'Friends usually drift as they go to university or start a family.' Do you agree? Why?
	Is the family (i.e. mother, father, two children) a common model in your country? What other type of family are common?	CHALLENGE	Do you (or someone you know) after anyone in your (their) family? Describe how you (they) are like the other person.	Can you think of a time when you had to put with someone? What was the situation?	'The secret to any successful relationship is being on the same' Do you agree? Why?
	Do you know someone who keeps others at 's length? Why do you think they do this?	Do you have a lifelong that you have known since you were very young? How young were you when you first met?	What is the easiest way of keeping in with someone? How does this differ to the world ten years ago?	CHALLENGE	'Don't waste your time with fair- friends – a real friend is there for you when things are good and bad.' Do you agree with this advice? Why?
	Have you ever discovered that you shared a friend with someone else? Did it surprise you? Why?	CHALLENGE	Can you think of a time when you met someone new and it off straight away? Describe it.	What does a 'close- family' mean to you? How does this compare to yours?	'..... up a child is the most rewarding job in the world.' Do you agree? Why?

Compare online relationships with real-life relationships.	Talk about one of your best friends.
Describe the members of a famous (book, film, TV) family.	Talk about your experience of networking.
Explain what makes a good (or bad) friend.	Talk about a friend you have made in the last year.
Give advice on how to develop good relationships at work.	Talk about the relationship between animals and humans.
Say how your friends would describe you.	Talk about a person in your family you look up to.