

Optimise your pronunciation

- When you learn a new word, it is important to learn the correct pronunciation and stress.
- If you put the stress on the wrong syllable in a word, other people may not understand what you are trying to say.

1  1.01 Underline the syllable in each of these hobbies which has the main stress. Then listen and check.

- painting
- skateboarding
- horse-riding
- photography
- rock climbing
- swimming
- computer games

2  1.02 Listen again and repeat.

3  1.03 Listen to the conversation and focus on the underlined words. Tick the ones with correct stress and put a cross next to the ones with incorrect stress.

Harry: What do you enjoy doing in your free time, Hannah?

Hannah: I've got a lot of hobbies but I really enjoy sports and other active hobbies, especially (1) skateboarding. How about you?

Harry: I like (2) horse-riding and I sometimes go (3) rock climbing. I also go (4) swimming every Saturday afternoon.

Hannah: I don't like swimming, but I enjoy (5) photography and I spend a lot of time (6) playing computer games.

Harry: I haven't got a camera but I like (7) painting. It's a lot of fun.

4 Say which of the hobbies in Exercise 1 you like doing and which you don't like doing. Make sure you use the correct stress when you say the words for the hobbies. Record yourself if you can.

Optimise your pronunciation

- When you learn a new word, it is important to learn the correct pronunciation and stress.
- If you put the stress on the wrong syllable in a word, other people may not understand what you are trying to say.

1  1.01 Underline the syllable in each of these hobbies which has the main stress. Then listen and check.

- painting
- skateboarding
- horse-riding
- photography
- rock climbing
- swimming
- computer games

2  1.02 Listen again and repeat.

3  1.03 Listen to the conversation and focus on the underlined words. Tick the ones with correct stress and put a cross next to the ones with incorrect stress.

Harry: What do you enjoy doing in your free time, Hannah?

Hannah: I've got a lot of hobbies but I really enjoy sports and other active hobbies, especially (1) skateboarding. How about you?

Harry: I like (2) horse-riding and I sometimes go (3) rock climbing. I also go (4) swimming every Saturday afternoon.

Hannah: I don't like swimming, but I enjoy (5) photography and I spend a lot of time (6) playing computer games.

Harry: I haven't got a camera but I like (7) painting. It's a lot of fun.

4 Say which of the hobbies in Exercise 1 you like doing and which you don't like doing. Make sure you use the correct stress when you say the words for the hobbies. Record yourself if you can.