Amy,
Could you buy some biscuits on your way home? I'll make some sandwiches when I'm back from work. Dad is buying the soft drinks. The guests are coming at five. Have a good day at school!
Love,
Mum

Dear Mark,
Let's meet at 'The Sweet World' on High Street. The place is big enough for all our friends. Go to their website when you have some free time. Let me know what you think.
Take care,
Alex

Hi Robert,
How are you?
I'm at my cousin's place at the moment. My family love sport as much as I do. We don't watch TV or play computer games in the evening; we play table tennis together.
It rained for a few days, so we went to the sports centre. Now it's sunny again. I hope it won't be windy tomorrow because we're planning a badminton match.
Today we're going to the swimming pool. We're going to be back home at about eight, so I'll have time to chat with you on the computer at about half past eight.
See you then.
Take care,
Zac

Hi Polly,
How are you? How is your holiday going?
Here is my news. I'm working as a sports instructor at a summer camp. I'm looking after a group of children your age. I play different sports with them. I also organise trips for the children. Today we're going to visit an interactive museum of sport. It's not easy for me to work with so many kids, but I think they like me, so I don't mind.
See you soon and have fun at your camp!
Lily
